Hello, everyone. I'm a student from Singapore. My hobby is traditional Chinese music. When I was seven, I began to have erhu lessons. Then, I formed a music group with my friends. And we've been in the group for four years. Every year, we play at our school art festival. We even won the school talent show two years ago. And we've already written ten songs of our own. Half of them were written by me. My biggest dream is to hold my own concert in Hong Kong. To achieve it, I've decided to learn music in China. So my parents will send me to Shanghai next year. I'll be there for two years. I plan to find a part-time job while studying there. I hope my dream will come true one day.
